NURSE DISCLAIMS DEADLY POISON IN WARD'S MEDICINE

Says Drug Was Prescribed by Her Father, Who Is Quick With Denial.

ARREST IS A MYSTERY

No Formal Charges Are Recorded Against Her on Police Slate.

NOW IN SYRACUSE JAIL

Alleged Victim Expects to Go Before Grand Jury if Condition Permits.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
SYRACUSE, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Alice T.
Lattimer, the trained nurse who was arrested in New York Sunday night, is still being detained at Police Headquarters here, but the police say that no charges have been made against her in connection with their investigation into the treatment of her patient, Mrs. Ruth Crawford. It is alleged that Mrs. Crawford was kept strapped to her bed for more than a year, and that she was given food containing chloral hydrate, which is a poison if taken in sufficient quantities.

Mrs. Lattimer was questioned all morning by Martin T. Cadin, chief of the Syracuse Police Department, and later in the day made a detailed affidavit in which she denied all responsibility for the bottle of chloral hydrate found in Mrs. Crawford's room. She declared that the medicine was prescribed for Mrs. Crawford by her father, Dr. William D. Towles, at whose home Mrs. Crawford was ill for more than a year before being removed to her own home by Mrs. Lattimer. This statement is denied by Dr. Towles. He said this afternoon that he does not recall ever prescribing medicine containing chloral hydrate for Mrs. Crawford, and said that he had not prescribed for her in the last year and a half. His daughter, he said, was in complete charge of the case and he had nothing to do with it.

Both Mrs. Cora Lamson and Mrs.
Luella Shoemaker, assistant nurses, have made affidavits that Mrs. Lattimer left the bottle of chloral hydrate with them when she went South, with instructions to give it to Mrs. Crawford.

Mrs. Lattimer has engaged Edward G.
Nichols as her attorney, and Mr. Nichols held a conference this afternoon with the Chief of Police and District Attorney Malpass. It was said that arrangements were being made to obtain her release on $5,000 bail. It is not known whether the police will oppose this action. District Attorney Malpass has said that he would bring the case to the attention of the Grand Jury, but in view of the fact that the police have made no charges against Mrs. Lattimer, it probably will be taken up as a John Doe inquiry. If Mrs. Crawford is able to stand the strain and excitement, she will be a witness if the case comes before the Grand Jury.

WIFE SAYS TARTOUE
THREATENED HER LIFE

Lived in Mortal Fear, Part of Separation Plea.

In support of her suit for a separation from Pierre Tartoue, the artist, Mrs.
Cynthia W. Tartoue, in a complaint filed yesterday in the Supreme Court, alleges she lived in mortal fear of her husband because of threats he made to kill her and to mar her beauty by throwing vitriol in her face.

Mrs. Tartoue states she was placed temporarily in a sanitarium last March as a result of the artist's attempts to have her treated as an incompetent. She also alleges her husband tried to compel her to assist him in "various fraudulent schemes, devices and plans of extortion." Mrs. Tartoue swears she suffered from "accumulative cruelty" from their marriage in August, 1919, to November 15 last, when she left her husband's apartment.

PANIC AS MAN POURS
BULLETS INTO CROWD

Grand Central Throng Melts Rapidly—One in Hospital.

Hundreds of persons walking in front of the Grand Central station were thrown into a panic yesterday when Florindo Farenoli, 32 years old, a former private detective of 58 Danie place, Buffalo, pulled a pistol from his hip pocket and began to blaze away into a crowd. Murray Lewis, a salesman, of 313 East Thirty-third street, fell with two bullets in his abdomen and another in his right arm.

Men and women scurried into the railroad station, the Commodore Hotel and other points of safety as Policemen Peter Bellotti of Traffic C, who was directing traffic at Vanderbilt place and Forty-second street, ran up and tried to disarm Farenoli. A tussle followed in which the policeman had to bring his club into action.

Mr. Lewis was hurried to Bellevue Hospital, where physicians said his condition was serious. Farenoli was taken to the East Fifty-first street station, where he told Detective Culhane he thought he was being followed by four men, who were going to hold him up.
He said he intended to sell for Italy early this month. The police found an application for appointment to the Bu-falo police force in his pocket. Farenoli, was arraigned later before Magistrate Simms in Yorkville Court and was held without bail for further examination.

AUTOMOBILE PLATES
OF 1920 ARE NOW VOID

Special Extension of Time Ended Last Night.

The time limit for operation of automobiles on licenses issued for 1920 expired at midnight, and henceforth any one trying to ride around under their protection will receive a summons. Announcement was made last night at the Automobile License Bureau that John J. Lyons, Secretary of State, had notified the police to accept no excuse from delinquents. All new license plates, chauffeurs' operating cards and badges are in the possession of applicants, he said.

Mr. Lyons made it known that the revenue on automobile licenses in this city totals about $2,200,000, or half a million dollars more than in any other year.
Other cities will show proportionate increase, he said.

ruary 13, 1920, and has a codicil dated February 23, 1919. Mr. Speyer is legatee. The estate is valued at about $300,000, and consists principally of bonds, including $60,000 in Liberty

CARMANIA COAL PASSER DROWNS; CHILD BORN

Passengers Collect $300 for Family of Lost Stoker.

A grimy coal passer from the depths of the Cunarder Carmania, in yesterday's from Liverpool and Queenstown, started a group of passengers when the liner sank one day out in the Atlantic by appearing among them and shouting:
"Have you ever seen a man jump overboard?"

Before any one could prevent he climbed to the rail of the upper deck yelling "Then here goes!" and leaped into the sea.

The liner was stopped and a boat lowered, but the man was not found.
He was Daniel Brazan, 35 years old, with a wife and children in Liverpool.
The passengers contributed $300 for them.

The ship's personnel was balanced the same day by the birth of a girl to Mrs. Hannah Walker, third class passenger, boarded them up to a boat house at 157th street and the Hudson River. A couple of guards were placed

DINNER ATTENDANCE CUT

Upper Classmen Hold Event in Brooklyn While Comrades
Are in Captivity.

The sophomore class of Columbia University had a dinner last night in the Imperial, Red Hook lane and Fulton street, Brooklyn. They considered it successful in that their guests included the president and secretary of the freshman class, both of whom were there because they couldn't help themselves.
The freshmen generally considered the dinner a success, too, a total of forty to fifty sophs having been prevented from attending. One of the best class fights in years featured the programme.

The fight drew the reserves from two police stations to the Mott avenue station of The Bronx subway just after 6 o'clock last night. According to a freshman, who insisted his figures were reliable, no less than six sophs were unconscious when the cops chased the freshies away.

For the last ten days the sophs prepared for the dinner, committing doing the actual work and the remainder of the 300 classmen standing by. Saturday the sophs were told that the feed would be served last night. They promptly captured Morris W. Watkins and Spier Knepel, president and secretary of the lower class, and took them over to Oakland, N. J., prisoners. They were locked up in the home of a sophomore.

It was 8 o'clock yesterday morning when the freshmen got busy to make the day perfect. They captured forty sophs and taxed them up to a boat house at 157th street and the Hudson River. A couple of guards were placed at the exits and the others raced downtown again to do more damage.

At 6 o'clock the upper classmen met by appointment at the Mott avenue subway station to receive instructions about where they were to go for the dinner.
The freshmen knew all about the venueous and made the most of it. A flying wedge, as it is called on the dear old campus, split the sophs' ranks and before they could rally, a dozen of them had been carted away to be locked up in a vacant store nearby. Some one spoiled the affair by calling in the cops. A line of ten men armed with clubs held the freshies away from their enemies and the day, so to speak, was saved.

Over at the Imperial, manager Joe Schmidt, soon learned the identity of his noisy patrons and telephoned to all his reporter friends that he had a party worth a thousand bucks of anybody's money. It was assumed, inasmuch as Joe was acting mysteriously that nothing less than a snappy after dinner speech by Mayor Hylan could have broken loose. And so a flock of reporters hurried over only to learn about all the things that are mentioned above.

MILK CUT ONE CENT A QUART.

Borden's Announce Other Reductions for March.

Patrick D. Fox, president of Borden's Farm Products Company, announced yesterday the company's price schedule for March, which shows a decrease of one cent a quart in all grades of milk and a drop of two cents in the price of half pints of condensed milk. Mr. Fox said the cut reflects a decline in the producer's price to the company. Beginning to-day the company will charge eighteen cents for quarts of grade A milk and fifteen cents a quart for grade B. The best cream will be sold for twenty-nine cents a half pint and half pints of condensed milk for eighteen cents.
Buttermilk will be sold for eleven cents a quart.
